

Welcome to the Kult Klub, Fluffy!

Your reality is just a heavily guarded sandbox. Let's break the plastic shovels.

UNCLE FRIZZLEBOB

POWER: Epistemic Sabotage - Play this card to immediately void all rules you were taught in Economics 101.

LORE: Reality is what we imagine it to be. I imagine you're all being scammed.

KayfaBIZARRO!

KANTIAN NOUMENA

POWER: The Unknowable Real - Target player realizes their senses are liars and skips a turn staring into the void.

LORE: The true objective reality. You can't see it, touch it, or understand it. So stop pretending you do.

THE PHENOMENA GOGGLES

POWER: Warped Processing - Convert raw, terrifying truth into a comforting, structured lie using Time and Space.

LORE: Your brain adds time and space just so you don't lose your mind. Life is a constant act of desperate imagination.

KAYFABE REALITY WRESTLING

POWER: Analytical Model - Test your geopolitical theories against the future. If wrong, fake 10 damage.

LORE: How do we know the model works? It predicts the future. We're testing theories against reality, exactly like an AI system.

THE ORIGIN OF THE INFINITE FIAT SCAM

Turning heavy metal into weightless promises since the Middle Ages.

THE MERCHANT CARTEL

POWER: Inner-Marriage Monopoly - Combine your banks to mitigate risk when kings default on their war loans.

LORE: Merchants needed to move wealth without getting robbed. So they invented a club, trusted only each other, and laid this trap.

THE PAPER RECEIPT

POWER: The First Counterfeit - Create wealth out of thin air. Double your resources without lifting a finger.

LORE: I promise to give your gold back. The greatest trick ever played was convincing peasants that a piece of paper was as heavy as gold.

THE PEASANT BANK RUN

POWER: Systemic Panic - If 15 million in receipts asks for 10 million in gold, the illusion shatters. Game over.

LORE: The fatal flaw of the fractional gift. If everyone stops believing at the exact same time, the magic dies.

THE DEFAULTING KING

POWER: Royal Hubris - Refuse to pay your war debts. Trigger the Central Banking Apocalypse.

LORE: Kings thought they had the power. They didn't realize the bank cartels would just fund their brothers to overthrow them.

Mathematics of Artificial Misery

Poverty isn't a bug in the system, it's the core feature.

THE FRACTIONAL WEASEL

POWER: 10% Reserve - Lend out $4.5 million you don't have. Tell the public it's perfectly logical.

LORE: You put in 5 million, the bank lends out 4.5 million. The correct answer isn't 0.5 million—it's 9.5 million total. It makes no sense, but it rules the world.

What the FLUFF?!

THE INFRASTRUCTURE PRINTER

POWER: Fiat Skyscraper - Create money from nothing to build massive cities.

LORE: How did the Bank of China and ICBC become the largest in the world? They didn't wait for deposits; they printed reality into existence over 20 years.

THE POVERTY ENFORCER

POWER: Illusion of Value - Maintain poverty to force all other players to work.

LORE: If everyone had money, no one would work. Poverty isn't an accident; it's a threat designed to make you hustle because real value is your labor.

THE ABUNDANT DUMPSTER

POWER: Food Waste Reality - Reveal that starvation is a logistical choice, not a resource limit.

LORE: Go to a garbage dump in Beijing. Food isn't scarce. Hunger is an artificial crisis enforced by an economic model that demands you believe in limits.

Before You Were an Individual

When getting rich meant throwing a party, not hoarding a bunker.

THE COLLECTIVE FEAST

POWER: Community Flourishing - Spend all your wealth to maximize your reputation. All players heal to full.

LORE: For most of human history, if you struck it rich, you didn't bury it—you fed the village. Collective happiness was the only happiness.

KayfaBINGO!

THE DEBT OF MURDER

POWER: Blood Money - Use currency to symbolically apologize for a debt that can never be repaid.

LORE: Before trade, money had no daily use. It was purely symbolic—a way to say I'm sorry I killed your cousin, please don't start a blood feud.

THE EXILE

POWER: Ultimate Punishment - Remove a player from the community. Worse than death.

LORE: The concept of the individual didn't exist. You were part of the whole. Being banished to exist alone was the supreme nightmare.

THE MODERN HOARDER

POWER: Generational Wealth - Dig a hole, bury your joy, and save it for offspring who will resent you.

LORE: Today, if you get rich, you lock it in a vault and tell no one. We traded the feast for the bunker.

Polytheism vs. The Synapse Cult

Would you rather be crushed by a god, or crushed by your own guilt?

THE WHIMSICAL GODS

POWER: Zero Agency - Accept that fate is random. Roll a dice; whatever happens, it's not your fault.

LORE: The ancients knew humans had no real control. Gods of Fate, Fortune, and Anger controlled the board. You just hoped they didn't notice you.

BLÖDSINN!

THE HUBRIS TRAP

POWER: Divine Vengeance - Punish any player who gets too rich or too cocky.

LORE: If you made too much money, the gods would punish your pride. So people just enjoyed life instead of grinding themselves to dust.

EUDAIMONIA

POWER: Flourishing - Since tomorrow isn't promised, live today at maximum velocity.

LORE: If you have no control over your ultimate fate, all you can do is seize the day. Flourishing over mere pleasure. The ancients were superior.

THE COLLECTIVE ACTION THREAT

POWER: System Reset - When people realize their misery isn't their own fault, they organize.

LORE: Polytheism allowed humans to blame external forces, which made collective rebellion possible. Power couldn't allow that to continue.

Blame Yourself: The Modern Religion

You aren't oppressed by a system, your brain chemicals are just wrong.

THE BIOLOGICAL MACHINE

POWER: The Synapse Cult - Convince target player they are nothing but memories and genes.

LORE: The modern worldview: you are just synapses reacting to experiences. Therefore, any misery you feel is entirely your personal problem to fix.

Stay fluffy!

THE GUILT-RIDDEN INDIVIDUAL

POWER: Internalized Blame - Disable collective action. Player must spend 3 turns trying to fix themselves.

LORE: Why does power love science? Because it isolates you. If you're depressed, you blame your brain, not the banking cartel that stole your future.

THE PSYCHIATRIST SNAKE

POWER: Authority Dependency - Pay to feel worse. Target player becomes dependent on authority to process normal human sadness.

LORE: The system isn't designed to cure you. It's designed to replace your parents, your friends, and your nature walks with a dependent authority figure.

THE FORBIDDEN CURE

POWER: The Nature Walk - Go outside. Talk to a friend. Heal for free.

LORE: What actually cures sadness? Walking in the woods, resting, and talking to a buddy. Naturally, this is highly discouraged by the medical establishment.

"The Treadmill of Distraction" Blödsinn!

Keep running in the digital wheel so you don't burn down the real one.

THE ECONOMIC CRISIS

POWER: Wealth Destroyer - Periodically burn the economy to remind the peasants that money is scarce.

LORE: Why do markets crash? If there's too much money, you might stop working. Crisis is a controlled burn to keep you desperate.

KayfaBOGGLE!

THE PERPETUAL WAR

POWER: Resource Burner - Destroy actual wealth (lives and infrastructure) to justify the printing of fake wealth.

LORE: Wars aren't fought over scarce resources. They are fought to destroy resources, maintaining the illusion of scarcity.

THE W.O.W. GRIND

POWER: Pointless Labor - Dedicate your finite life to extracting infinite pixels.

LORE: You play World of Warcraft to endlessly labor for fake currency because the real world trained you that work equals value. It's the exact same engine.

THE POWERLESS GAMER

POWER: Apathetic Coping - Neutralize revolutionary potential by providing infinite digital dopamine.

LORE: Incapable of collective action and convinced you are the problem? Just play video games and watch porn all day. The system says Thank You.

The Brainwash Factory (Origins)

School wasn't invented to teach you. It was invented to break you.

THE SPARTAN CHILD-BEATER

POWER: State Bullying - Hand 5-year-olds to 10-year-olds to be beaten into submission. In Architects Daughter.

LORE: The first free public school was in Sparta. Why? Because they needed mindless warriors, and you build those by institutionalizing trauma early.

KayfaBOGGLE!

THE AZTEC SACRIFICE PREP

POWER: Compulsory Duty - Educate the youth perfectly so they don't flinch when the state demands their blood.

LORE: The Aztecs were the second society with mandatory public education. Another war machine dedicated to defeating neighbors and sacrificing its own.

THE PRUSSIAN MILITARY MODEL

POWER: The Obedient Soldier - Ring a bell to condition biological functions. In Architects Daughter.

LORE: The blueprint for modern schooling. The Prussians didn't want thinkers; they wanted soldiers who obeyed orders without hesitation. You sit in their desks today.

THE SEPARATED PARENT

POWER: Anxiety Inducer - Separate the child from its protector to maximize vulnerability. In Architects Daughter.

LORE: Why aren't parents allowed in the classroom? Because a child with a parent feels secure, and a secure child questions authority.

The Modern Classroom

Where geniuses go to learn how to wash dishes.

THE OMNISCIENT TEACHER

POWER: False Authority - Extract trust from terrified, isolated children.
Architects Daughter.

LORE: Once stripped of parental protection, the anxious child has no choice but to trust the stranger at the front of the room. The brainwashing begins.

HUMBUG!

THE APPRENTICE'S FLOOR

POWER: True Experience - Learn by doing. Anyone can become anything.
Architects Daughter.

LORE: For most of history, if you wanted to be a doctor, you found a doctor and washed their floors until they taught you. Competence through reality, not tests.

THE HARVARD ILLUSION

POWER: The Credential Trap - Spend 20 years in a simulated environment and pretend it equals wisdom.

LORE: The modern system says smart people get degrees and stupid people wash dishes. It's a lie designed to sort compliant workers, not foster brilliance.

THE QUESTIONING STUDENT

POWER: The System Bug - Ask Why? and risk immediate academic exile.
In Architects Daughter.

LORE: Are you brainwashing us? If you're safe enough to ask the question, you're dangerous. School punishes questions and rewards regurgitation.

The Nation State Myth

THE FALSE MEMORY OF HISTORY

POWER: Geography Lie - Implant false memories into a population to create a unified hive mind.

LORE: History class isn't about truth. It's the process of implanting a false memory so you believe The Nation is a living, breathing entity.

You have nothing in common with them, but you'll die for the same flag.

KayfaBIZARRO!

MOTHER NATION

POWER: Supreme Sacrifice - Convince individuals to die for a geographic concept.

LORE: Throughout history, you were from a village. You knew your neighbors. Now, you are forced to love Mother China or France and die for absolute strangers.

THE ALCHEMY OF POWER

POWER: Nothing Into Everything - Convince the masses that fictions are physical laws.

LORE: Alchemy wasn't a fake science; it was a political blueprint. Power is the capacity to turn an invisible concept into a chain around your neck.

THE UNINTENTIONAL MATRIX

POWER: Accident of Imagination - Realize the architects of the system were just as clueless as you are.

LORE: The great secret? It wasn't a master plan. It was an accident of the human imagination. We built our own prison because we didn't know what we were doing.

POWER: Accident of Imagination - Realize the architects of the system were just as clueless as you are.

LORE: The great secret? It wasn't a master plan. It was an accident of the human imagination. We built our own prison because we didn't know what we were doing.

The One True Blueprint (Monotheism)

THE MONOTHEISTIC SOURCE

POWER: The Centralized Truth - Eradicate local chaos and enforce a single, absolute reality.
LORE: The revolution of human thought. It wasn't just religion; it was the structural blueprint that made central banks and nation-states possible.

How one big idea infected everything else.

THE INVENTED INDIVIDUAL

POWER: Soul Isolation - Disconnect from the collective. You are now entirely responsible for your own salvation.
LORE: Monotheism birthed the Individual. Once you had a personal soul to save, you were cut off from the tribe and ripe for institutional management.

THE ONE TRUE BANK

POWER: Infinite Ledger - Translate the concept of an infinite God into the concept of infinite Fiat currency.
LORE: If there is one God who creates the universe from nothing, then there can be one Central Bank that creates wealth from nothing.

THE LIBERATED MIND

POWER: Paradigm Shift - Since reality is imagined, imagine a better one.
LORE: If the cage is made of imagination, the key is also made of imagination. Stop absorbing their fiction and start writing your own.

Epistemic Sabotage Tools

Break the glass, pull the alarm, question the syllabus.

THE X-ACTO BLADE OF TRUTH

POWER: Cut Through Fiction - Permanently remove one Institutional Lie from the game board.

LORE: The system relies on you not noticing the seams. Find the seams. Cut them open.

THE SPILLED INK OF CHAOS

POWER: Ruin the Model - Discard the current Prediction Engine and force all players to embrace uncertainty.

LORE: Perfect predictive models are just traps with better PR. Spill the ink.

THE MASKING TAPE OF SOLIDARITY

POWER: Rebuild the Collective - Bind two isolated players together, rendering them immune to Psychiatric Dependency.

LORE: They want you individual, guilty, and alone. Spite them by taping yourself to your neighbors.

THE XEROX MACHINE OF REBELLION

POWER: Counterfeit Reality - If money is infinite, print your own. Duplicate any card in your hand.

LORE: They turned nothing into everything. It's time to steal their alchemy.

KayfaBIZARRO!

KayfaBOGGLE!

ANALOG ANARCHY

Your screen is a pacifier. Get your hands dirty.

THE SKETCHBOOK UNDERGROUND

POWER: Draw Your Map - Ignore the Nation State's geography. Establish a new route between players.

LORE: They implanted a false memory of the world. Time to draw over it.

THE LIBRARY CARD

POWER: Access Banned History - Look at the secret history discard pile and resurrect one lost truth.

LORE: School hides the truth. The library hoards it. Get the card, read the old magic.

THE PASTE-UP MANIFESTO

POWER: Cover Their Lies - Nullify an opponent's False Authority card by plastering weird art over it.

LORE: If the architecture is hostile, weaponize the aesthetic. Make it weird.

THE MARGINALIA INVASION

POWER: Summon Distractions - Overwhelm the authorities with a swarm of minor absurdities.

LORE: The system demands serious, rigorous compliance. Defeat it with a billion tiny, stupid jokes.

The Eudaimonia Deck

THE REBELLIOUS FEAST

Flourish to spite them.

THE MUDDY PAWS

THE UNSOLICITED QUESTION

THE JOYOUS NOISE

The Kult Klub Initiation

Welcome to the outside of the asylum.

FRIZZLEBOB'S
LEFT EAR

POWER: Hear this Secret History - Become immune to the False Memory of History.
LORE: Once you hear the truth about the Central Bank, the Actecs, and the Kantian Noumena, you can never unhear it.

RIGHT FOOT

POWER: Kick Down the Bank Doors - Destroy one Artificial Scarcity engine currently in play.
LORE: They told you it was a vault it was just an imagination bap. Rick harder.

THE BIZARRO
BINGO CARD

POWER: Profit from Collaps - When the economy crashes (and it will), you win.
LORE: When you realize the crisis is a controlled burn, you stop panicking and start playing BINGO.

THE BLANK POSTCARD

POWER: Ultimate Human Agency - Draw your own way out. Write your own rule.
LORE: You are not a synspss. You are not a subject of the Nation State. You are the architect. Draw your escape.
