Secret History Vol. 06

POWER: Play to reveal the invisible architecture of your own mind.

LORE
First there was the Mother Goddess. Then came the Polytheistic vibration matrix. Now? You worship the Literal Brain-Box. You've been downgraded.

Kayfabizarro Komik Kards

POWER: Discard your current worldview. Draw a new, terrifying one.

LORE:
A class of ideas and concepts. We will build on them throughout the semester. Viewer discretion is heavily, heavily advised.

Professor FrizzleBob's

POWER: Equip to gain +10 Epistemic Sabotage.

LORE
School is hard because it teaches you to ignore your intuition and trust the data. FrizzleBob is hard because he teaches you the data is a psy-op.

Institutional Power-Wrestling

POWER:
Target player realizes they are the punchline.

LORE:
They turn you into a programmable robot to use as a weapon. Welcome to the uncut sheet.

EPISTEMIC SABOTAGE (THE WORLDVIEW HACKS)

Don't trust your lying eyes—trust the nice people in the lab coats.

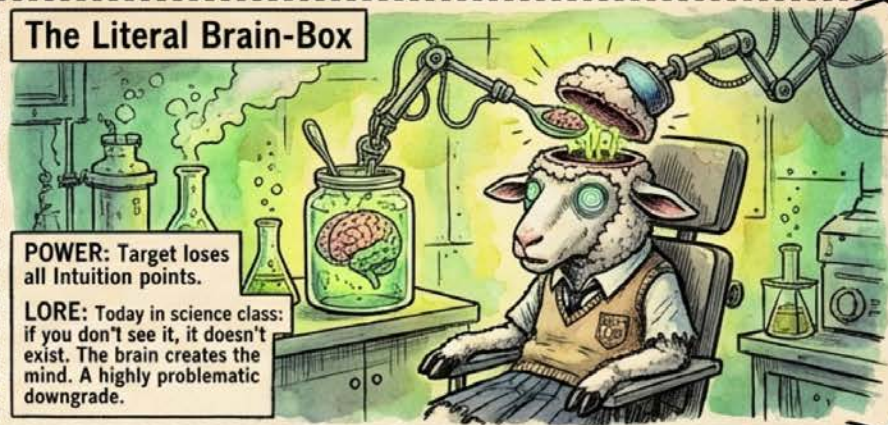

The Mind-Vibration Matrix

POWER: Negate one Science attack.

LORE: Before, we understood that mind led to matter. The universe was one giant vibrating mind. Intuition was king.

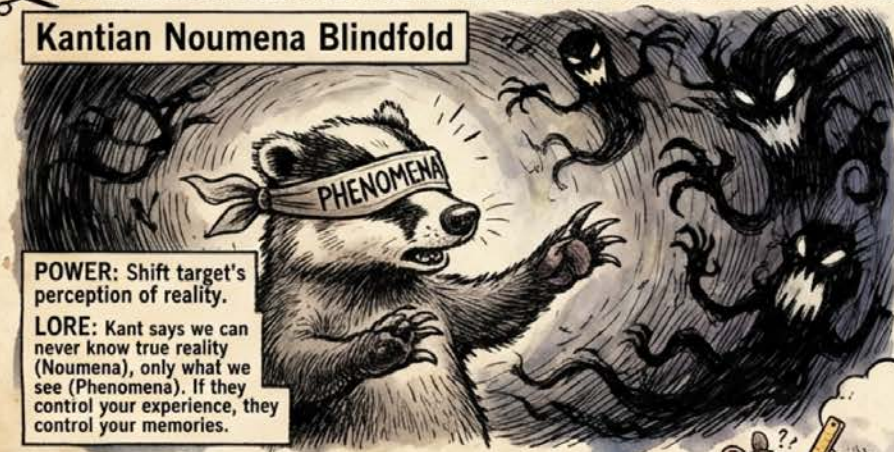

The Literal Brain-Box

POWER: Target loses all Intuition points.

LORE: Today in science class: if you don't see it, it doesn't exist. The brain creates the matter. A highly problematic downgrade.

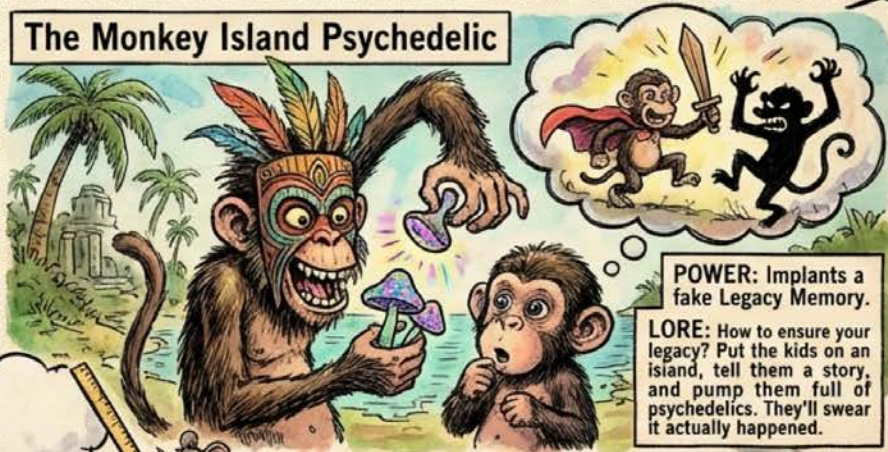

Kantian Noumena Blindfold

POWER: Shift target's perception of reality.

LORE: Kant says we can never know true reality (Noumena), only what we see (Phenomena). If they control your experience, they control your memories.

The Monkey Island Psychedelic

POWER: Implants a fake Legacy Memory.

LORE: How to ensure your legacy? Put the kids on an island, tell them a story, and pump them full of psychedelics. They'll swear it actually happened.

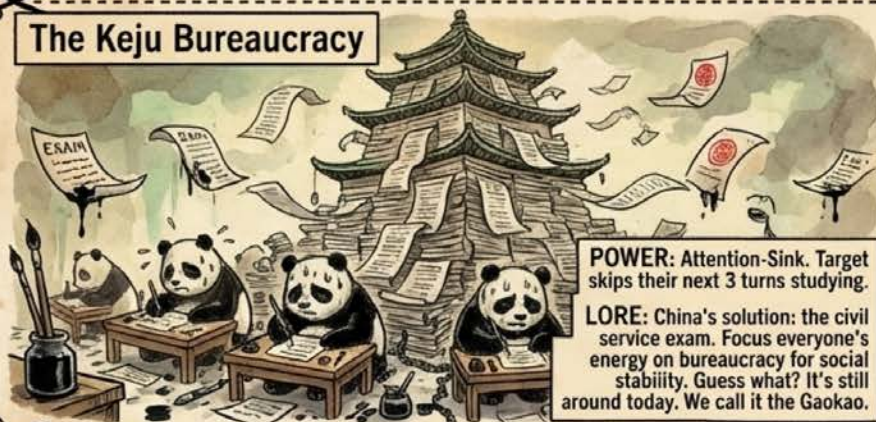

What the FLUFF?!

THE INCUBATOR CIVILIZATIONS

Four ancient startups, four distinct flavors of crowd-control.

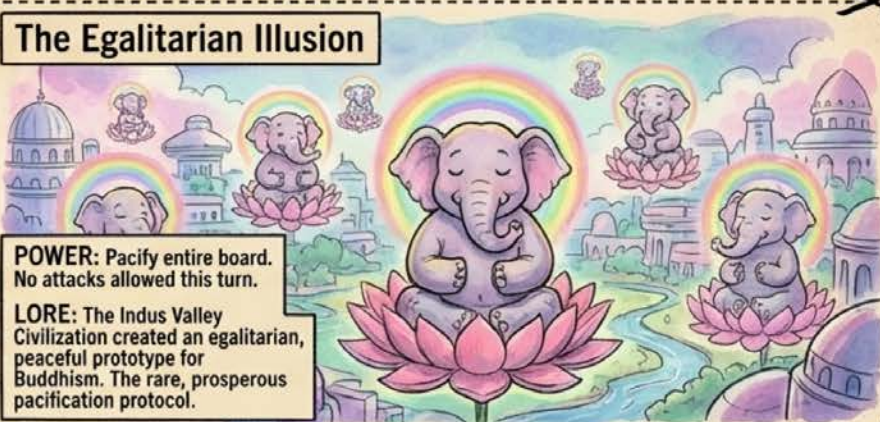

The Keju Bureaucracy

POWER: Attention-Sink. Target skips their next 3 turns studying.

LORE: China's solution: the civil service exam. Focus everyone's energy on bureaucracy for social stability. Guess what? It's still around today. We call it the Gaokao.

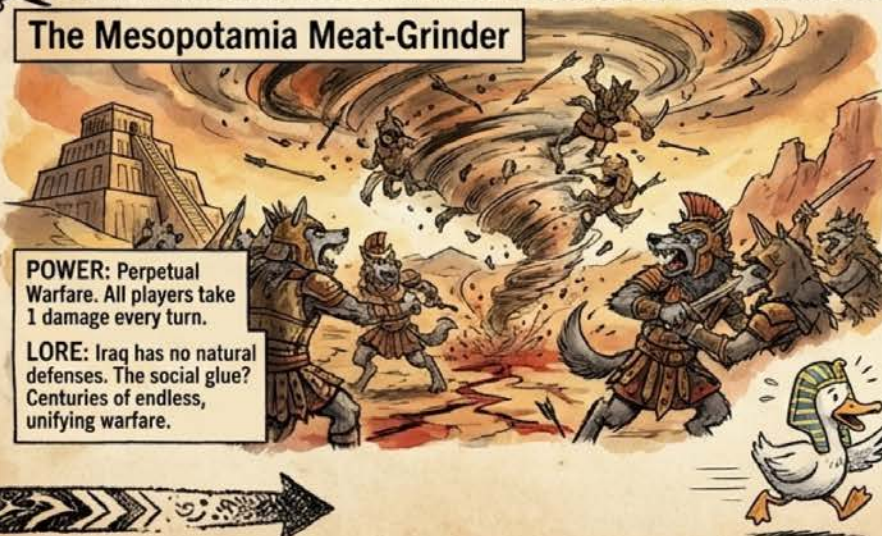

The Egalitarian Illusion

POWER: Pacify entire board. No attacks allowed this turn.

LORE: The Indus Valley Civilization created an egalitarian, peaceful prototype for Buddhism. The rare, prosperous pacification protocol.

The Mesopotamia Meat-Grinder

POWER: Perpetual Warfare. All players take 1 damage every turn.

LORE: Iraq has no natural defenses. The social glue? Centuries of endless, unifying warfare.

The Pharaoh Puppet

POWER: Use Target as a God-King Meat-Shield.

LORE: Egypt's solution: The Pharaoh is God. The problem? He's human, and his life is constantly at risk. He risk. He needed... adjustments.

THE PSYCHOPATH'S TRIFECTA

Everything they taught you in business school is a lie.

Weaponized Unpredictability

POWER: Change your alignment instantly.

LORE: Empathy? Respect? Wrong. Great leaders need unpredictability. They are a literal hundred different people depending on the circumstance.

High-Stress Teflon

POWER: Ignore all incoming damage and public hatred.

POWER: Ignore all incoming damage and public hatred.

LORE: The most hated men in the world go to bed and sleep like babies. They wake up happy. They just do not care.

KayfaBINGO!

Empathy Void

POWER: Consume all resources without penalty.

LORE: Lack of empathy. Total selfishness. To survive the game, you must be a psychopath.

Game Theory Secret Alliances

POWER: Win the game by cheating the rules.

LORE: In a game of millions, you win by cheating via secret alliances. The problem? Everyone knows this. The solution? Multiple personalities so you never betray yourself.

THE EGYPTIAN SCRIPT

Mythology? No, it's a trauma-based screenplay.

Ra, The Virtuous Hero

POWER: Gain +5 Strength, but attack blindly.

LORS: Ra must kill the serpent Opus every night to prevent a solar eclipse. The Pharaoh is drugged and forced to stab or burn an effigy to program the "Hero" alter.

Osiris, The Passive Victim

POWER: Survive lethal damage, but lose a turn.

LORE: Tricked into a tomb by Set, then cut into a million pieces. The Pharaoh is locked in a box, humiliated, and traumatized to program the "Passive Victim" alter.

Horus, The Vengeful Child

POWER: Retaliate for double damage after taking a hit.

LORE: Horus fights Set for the throne via drowning challenges and domination. The Pharaoh is waterboarded to program the "Vengeful Child" alter.

Set, The Provocateur

POWER: Trigger an opponent's trauma script.

LORE: The manufactured enemy. He builds the tomb, cuts up the brother, and initiates the drowning. The necessary trauma-inducer for the grand play.

KayfaBOGGLE!

KayfaBOGGLE!

Isis, The Masked Handler

POWER: Control target player's next move.

LORE: The trusted voice in the dark. A priest wearing the Isis mask comforts the Pharaoh during trauma, becoming the sole controller who whispers commands in the night.

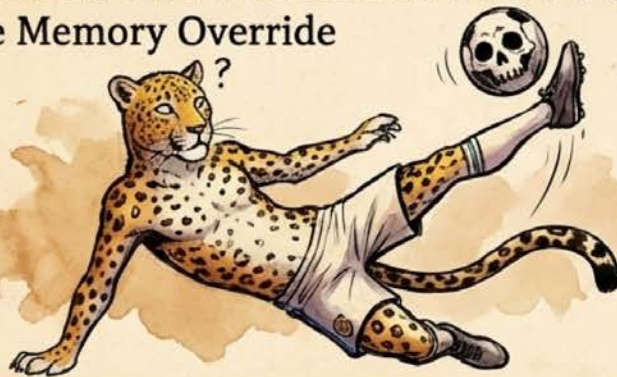

The Olfactory Trigger

POWER: Switch target's active personality.

LORE: Smell is the switch. Incense activates Ra. Roses activate Osiris. The priests flood the throne room with scents to determine how the Pharaoh makes decisions.

Muscle Memory Override

POWER: Execute a perfect attack while your mind is blank.

LORE: If the best soccer player gets amnesia, they still kick the ball perfectly. Subconscious muscle memory. Through programming, anyone can be turned into a killer robot.

The Royal Deep State

POWER: Sacrifice a leader to start a civil war.

LORE: Who runs this? The Priest class. The Deep State. And when factions divide, they simply program the Pharaoh's brother to ignite a civil war. Everyone is programmed.

THE ASTRAL REVIEW

Dying is just the ultimate VIP backstage pass.

The Near-Death Accelerator

POWER: Hurt yourself to draw 3 cards.

LORE: Why would the royals agree to this? NDEa. For 10 minutes, you are literally dead. The priests experiment on themselves via drowning and starvation to hack the spirit realm.

The Life Review Theater

POWER: Target feels all damage they dealt this game.
LORE: There is no difference between Heaven and Hell. It's just the Life Review. Dissociation ends here. You must physically feel the pain you caused others.

Positive Energy Ascendancy

POWER: Float above the game board.

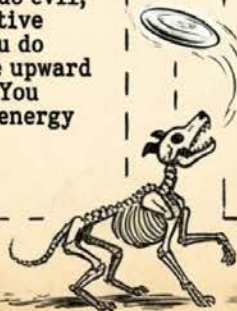

LORE: When you do evil, you create negative weight. When you do good, you create upward physical force. You finally see the energy you generated.

The Love Remnant

POWER: The only resource that persists after Game Over.

LORE: When you die, love is actually a physical force. The more you have, the higher you ascend. Stuck? You have to come back and do it again.

KayfaBIZARRO!

MODERN BLACK-OPS

New hardware. Same old ancient malware.

MK-Ultra Gobble

POWER: Brainwash target civilian.

LORE: MK-Ultra: 1950s program led by chemist Sydney Gottlieb. Testing drugs and brainwashing on innocent citizens. They admitted they did it. Just "not anymore".

The Psychotic Psychologist

POWER: Healer applies Poison damage instead.

LORE: Psychologists have a greater propensity for mental illness than most people. Your doctor is literally more screwed up than you are. Positive psychology is brainwashing.

The CIA Brothel

POWER: Lure target into a trap.

LORE: To test the drugs, the CIA literally set up a brothel. Lure them with sex, dose them with LSD, figure out how to control the mind. Sound familiar?

Learned Helplessness

POWER: Target cannot attack for 2 turns.

LORE: The theory that you can break a mind so completely it gives up. The military thought they could use it to turn a "Ra" terrorist into an "Osiris" citizen.

THE WAR ON TERROR SANDBOX

Creating chaos on an $80 million budget.

Abu Ghraib Dungeon

POWER: Extract a false confession.

LORE: The military claimed it was "rogue soldiers". The court testimony revealed it was an $80 million CIA psychological design. Enhanced Interrogation.

Guantanamo Scripting

POWER: Re-apply the Osiris Trauma.

LORE: Abu Zubaydah's testimony: force-fed, put in a coffin, drowned, threatened with a power drill. It is the EXACT story of Egypt. They are running the 5,000-year-old script.

ISIS: The American Golem

POWER: Create an unstoppable enemy on the board.

LORE: Human rights groups found that US prisons fueled extremism. ISIS (named after the Egyptian goddess handler) was an American creation, designed to create maximum chaos.

Whoops!
We funded
them again!

What the FLUFF?!

The Reverse-Alchemy

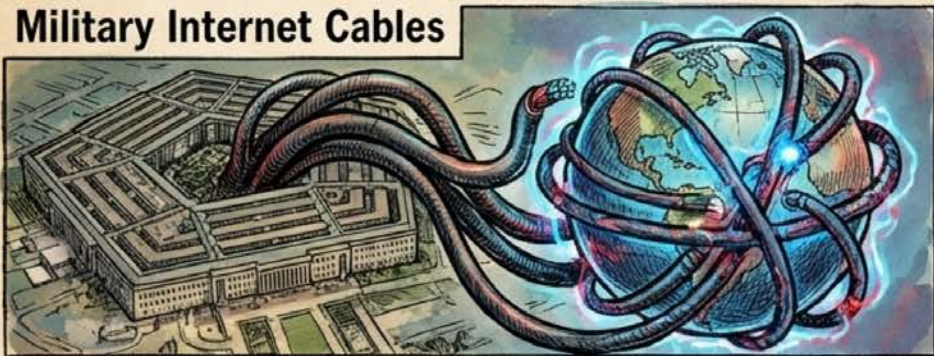

POWER: Transform a citizen into a weapon.

LORE: They thought they were turning Ra into Osiris. They ended up turning Osiris into Ra. How stupid were they? Or... did the experiment work exactly as intended?

THE OMNIPRESENT GRID

Military Internet Cables

POWER: See all other players' hands.

LORE: Who built the internet? The US Military. Do you think the DoD built the world's nervous system for free? It's an extraction grid.

You are the Pharaoh. Congratulations.

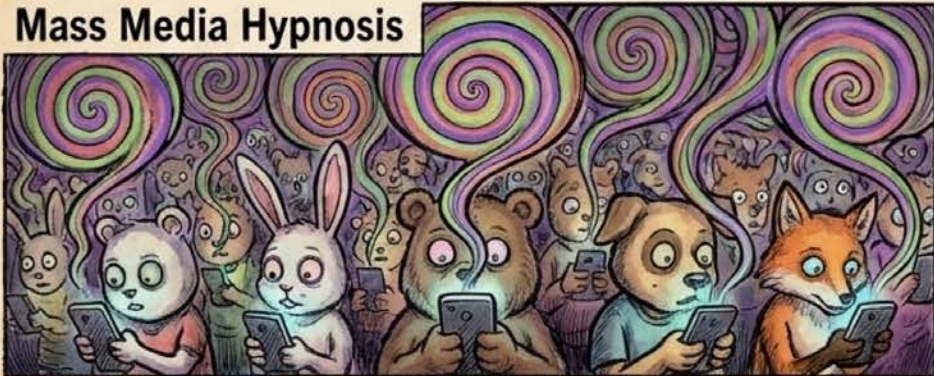

The Social Media Faceplate

POWER: Distract target while stealing their data.

LORE: Twitter and Facebook are just the public face. Private billionaires fronting for military data extraction infrastructure.

Mass Media Hypnosis

POWER: Control the public narrative.

LORE: What they did in Egypt to one guy, they now do to everyone. Mass education and mass media are the new olfactory triggers. The results of MK-Ultra spread through society.

You Are The Pharaoh

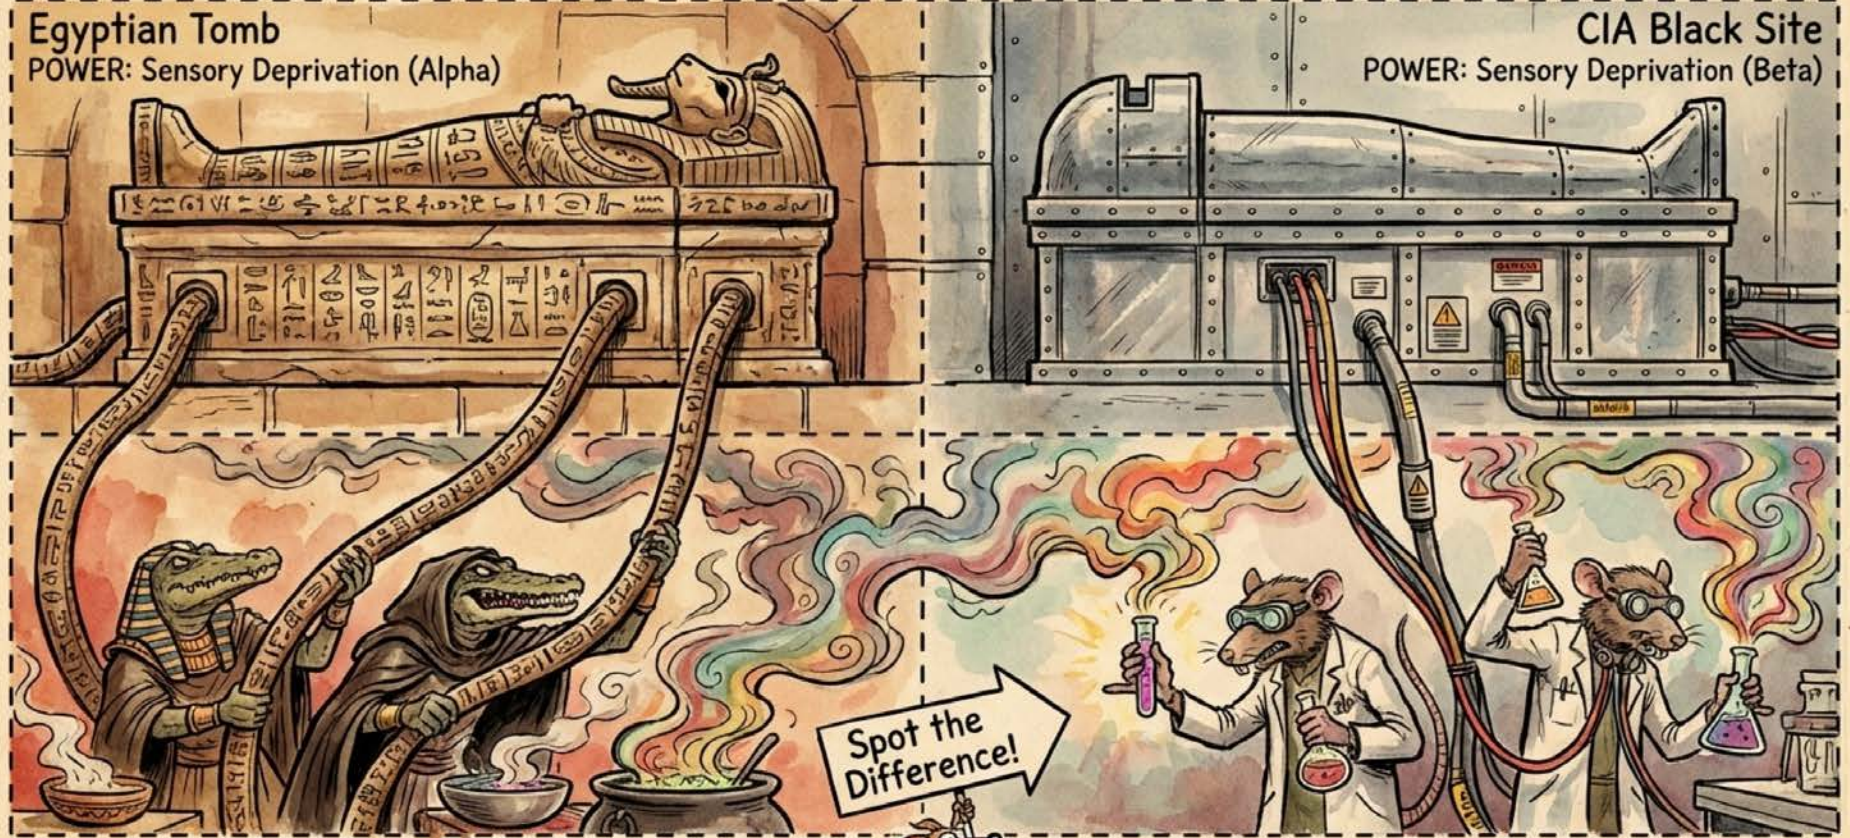

POWER: Game Over. You are the product.

LORE: Good news guys! Each and every one of you are now the Pharaoh. The exact same mechanisms of trauma and dissociation are right there in your pocket.

SYNTHESIS: THE CYCLE OF ABUSE

5,000 years of innovation, and they still just put you in a box.

The Priest Class
POWER: Deep State (Alpha)

The Military-Industrial Complex
POWER: Deep State (Beta)

THE DISSOCIATION CURVE

A step-by-step guide to fracturing your mind.

Step 1: The Mark

POWER: Target begins the sequence.

Step 2: Overload

POWER: Apply NDE and Psychedelics.

Step 3: Dissociation

POWER: The Spirit leaves the physical form.

Step 4: The Handler's Grip

POWER: Lock in the new identity.

Stay fluffy!

THE PROFESSOR'S DISCLAIMERS

I have no proof, which obviously proves they destroyed it.

KayfaBIZARRO!

The Speculation Shield

POWER: Evade all fact-checkers for one turn.
LORE: This is all speculation. It's really important for you to doubt and question me. I have no evidence that this is true. Take it with a grain of salt.

The Erased Records

POWER: Destroy evidence. Remove cards from the discard pile.
LORE: Why don't we have proof? Because the most sensitive documentation is always destroyed by the participants. It's the greatest state secret of Egypt, and of the CIA.

The Nice Guy Fatality

POWER: Assassinate a player with high Empathy.
LORE: If you're a nice person who feels sorry for poor people, you're dead. The Pharaoh's brothers want the throne. The priests are actually "protecting" the Pharaoh by making him a psychopath.

Uncle FrizzleBob's Epiphany

POWER: Break the fourth wall. Game ends in a draw.
LORE: Wait... if the brain creates the mind... and the prompt engineer creates the rabbit... am I just a programmed alter? KAYFABIZARRO!

IT'S ALL A GAME

WHO IS THE PLAYER?

GW Georg v. Westphalen

BOOSTER PACK FILLERS (PART 1)

Scraps from the cutting room floor of history.

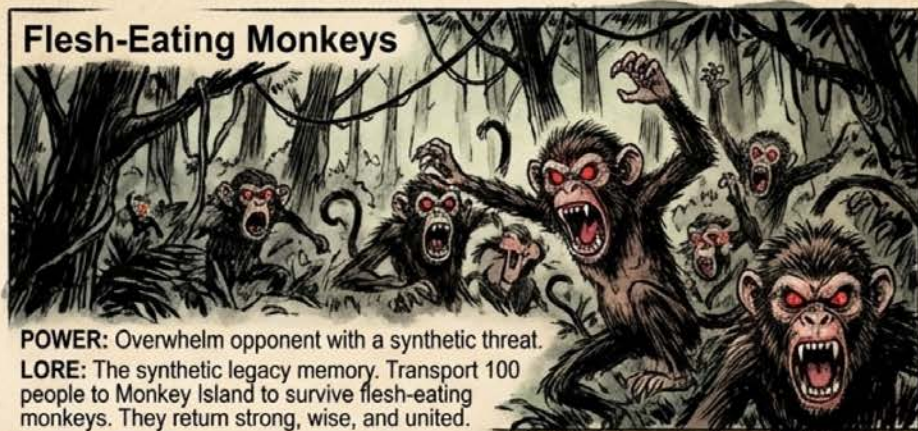

The Acadabra Trigger Word

POWER: Instantly activate a Sleeper Agent.

LORE: Train them to shoot while on psychedelics. Say the word "Acadabra". Later, if they hear "Acadabra", they pull the gun. Magic is just programming.

Flesh-Eating Monkeys

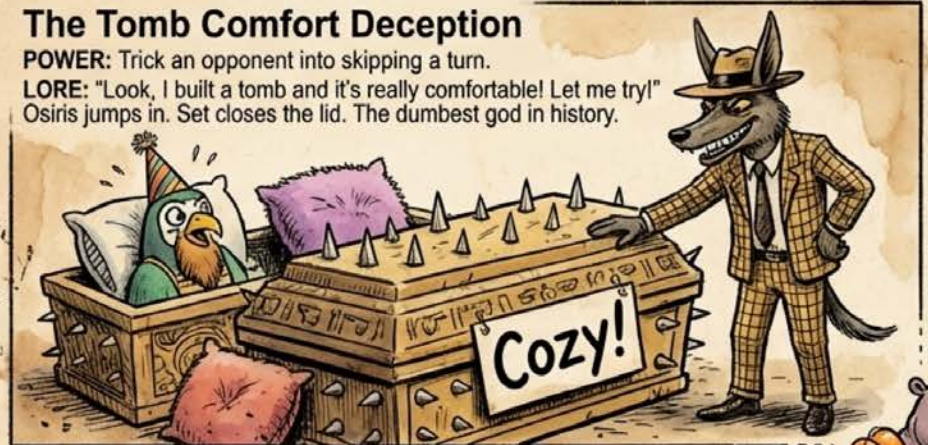

POWER: Overwhelm opponent with a synthetic threat.

LORE: The synthetic legacy memory. Transport 100 people to Monkey Island to survive flesh-eating monkeys. They return strong, wise, and united.

The Tomb Comfort Deception

POWER: Trick an opponent into skipping a turn.

LORE: "Look, I built a tomb and it's really comfortable! Let me try!" Osiris jumps in. Set closes the lid. The dumbest god in history.

The Hippo Trial

POWER: Drown target opponent.

LORE: Horus and Set turn into hippos and go to the bottom of the river to see who can hold their breath the longest. A completely normal way to choose an Emperor.

MARGINALIA OVERFLOW (PART 2)

The final puzzle pieces of your paranoia.

The Solar Eclipse Panic

POWER: Blackout the board. No visual attacks.

LORE: If Ra forgots to stab Opus the serpent one night? Boom. Solar eclipse. The sun cannot rise. The trauma ritual must be maintained daily.

The Amnesiac Soccer Star

POWER: Retain skill level even when silenced.

LORE: If the greatest soccer player gets amnesia and forgets who he is, kick a ball at him and he'll kick it perfectly back. The subconscious is a loyal machine.

The $80 Million Invoice

POWER: Steal resources from the bank.

LORE: Two psychologists paid $80 million to reverse-engineer Egyptian trauma rituals and call it "Learned Helplessness". The most lucrative evil in history.

The 5,000-Year Glitch

POWER: Restart the game with the exact same rules.

LORE: Who we are as humans has not changed in thousands of years. We have not improved on the Egyptians. All modern technology is just doing what they did.
