DESTROY THIS DECK

This isn't a PDF. It's raw material. Print it. Cut along the dotted lines. If you don't cut it, it doesn't work.

PICK YOUR ACTOR

Draw a card. That's you now. You aren't playing a game; you're arguing a perspective.

BUILD THE STAGE

Lay out 3 cards. Connect them. If the connection makes sense, you're boring. If it's Kayfabizarro, you're winning.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

THE QUEST DIE

Roll the die. [1] is static. [6] is a riot. Push the story until the die breaks.

THE BONE FLUTE

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Summon Primal History."

The first instrument wasn't for art.
It was a remote control for the human heart.

THE WAR DRUM

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Synchronize Heartbeats."

Before the state, there was rhythm. When hearts beat together, individual boundaries dissolve.

THE SHAMAN

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Reality Management."

The musician didn't entertain.
They managed the tribe's reality.

THE ECHO

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Repetition of Truth."

Sound defines the space. If you control the echo, you define the boundaries of the world.

GREGORIAN CHANT

One voice. One truth. No harmony allowed, because harmony implies there is more than one perspective.

THE TRITONUS (DIABOLUS)

The Devil in Music. The interval that refuses to resolve, banned for centuries because tension is dangerous.

Humbug!

THE PIPE ORGAN

The most expensive machine in the pre-industrial world. It speaks with the voice of God and the budget of the State.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

HILDEGARD'S VISION

Avant-garde ecstasy framed as divine dictation. The only way to break the rules was to claim God wrote them.

THE FUGUE

A musical argument where voices invert and combine. It's not a song; it's dialectical logic.

THE DEAF COMPOSER

Proof that music lives in mental architecture, not sound. He built the structure after the world went quiet.

THE LEITMOTIF

A musical tag for a character. It tells the audience exactly how to feel before the character even speaks.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

BAYREUTH (TOTAL ART)

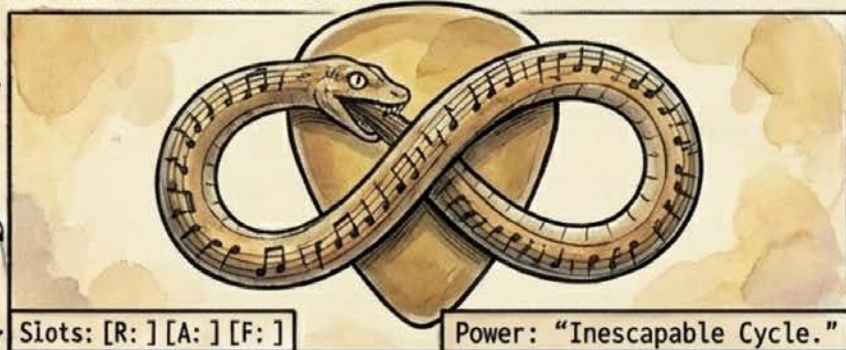

Dim the lights. Hide the orchestra. The audience doesn't observe; they are absorbed.

THE CROSSROADS

Transcendent ability costs something you can't get back.
The deal is real, even if the Devil is a metaphor.

THE 12-BAR LOOP

Statement, repeat, response. It's not laziness; it's the insistence that the suffering is real.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

THE 27 CLUB

The pattern is the point. Extreme creative gifts often consume the vessel that carries them.

THE BLUE NOTE

The note that shouldn't work but does.
It hurts because it's true.

What the FLUFF?!

THE TURNED BACK

He didn't play for them. He played for the music.
If they didn't get it, that was their problem.

KayfaBONGO!

LOVE SUPREME

Not a song, but a spiritual practice using the saxophone as a prayer wheel.

THE IMPROVISER

The moment it becomes comfortable, it's wrong.
You have to be ahead of your own understanding.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

THE SESSION

Discovery happens in the gaps.
No rehearsal, just sketches and trust.

PAYOLA

Hits are manufactured, not discovered. It's illegal to bribe a DJ, but it's legal to buy a playlist.

THE TEEN IDOL

Find a vessel that can carry the music without carrying the threat. Safe, pretty, and profitable.

BLÖDSINN!

THE COVER VERSION

Sand down the edges. Repackage the raw emotion for a broader market. Keep the money.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

TOP 40

A self-fulfilling prediction. Play it until they like it. Familiarity breeds purchase.

THE AMEN BREAK

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Infinite Loop."

Courier Prime: Six seconds of drums from 1969 that built entire genres. The drummer died broke.

KayfaBIZARRO!

THE CRATE DIGGER

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Unearth the Past."

Buried knowledge. Finding the break that everyone else walked past.

Help, I'm HUMAN!

THE SAMPLER

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Recontextualize."

The Bronx had no budget, so they used the past as a brickyard. Theft? No. Collage.

COPYRIGHT BOT

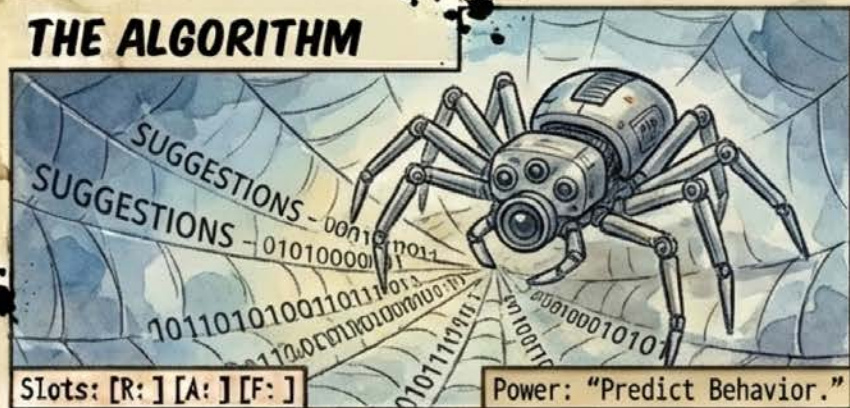

Slots: [R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: "Retroactive Punishment."

The law didn't evolve to protect artists. It evolved to protect the owners of the catalog.

THE ALGORITHM

It doesn't care what you like. It cares what you won't skip. Optimization leads to sameness.

THE PLAYLIST

A mood buffer. Context is removed. The artist is irrelevant. Just keep the vibe steady.

Stay fluffy!

Help, I'm HUMAN!

LOUDNESS WAR

Eliminate dynamic range. If everything is loud, nothing is urgent.

RETENTION RATE

The metric is time spent. The goal is to keep you here, mildly satisfied, forever.

440 Hz (STANDARD)

[R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: Anxiety Induction
Lore: Standardized in 1939.
Some say it creates subtle psychological dissonance.
A frequency for workers, not dreamers.

Do not obey!

LAUREL CANYON KOMIKA AXIS

[R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: Controlled Opposition
Lore: Why did so many 60s rock stars have fathers in military intelligence?
Just a coincidence. Surely.

432 Hz (NATURAL)

[R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: Cosmic Resonance
Lore: The mathematical vibration of the universe.
Or maybe just a placebo.
But it feels slower.

BACKMASKING KOMIKA AXIS

[R:] [A:] [F:]

Power: Hidden Command
Lorries: The subconscious hears what the ear misses. Or maybe it's just noise. Do it.

THE HOSPITAL BED

KOMIKA AXIS

[R:][A:][F:]

Power: "Work Until The End."

Lore: Producing masterpieces while dying. The industry ignored him; the culture canonized him.

THE RESPECT

KOMIKA AXIS

[R:][A:][F:]

Power: "Flip the Script."

Lore: She didn't change the notes. She changed the subject position. Suddenly, the song was a demand.

THE CHAMELEON

KOMIKA AXIS

[R:][A:][F:]

Power: Identity Shift.

Lore: The mask isn't hiding the self. The mask is the self. Kill the character before they get bored.

THE SILENCE

KOMIKA AXIS

[R:][A:][F:]

Power: The Space Between.

Lore: 4'33". The music is the coughing of the audience. The frame determines the art.
