

THE KAYFABIZARRO MANIFESTO

Four cards. One truth. Print, cut, and assemble the cover-up!

UNCLE FRIZZLEBOB & LOU

PLAY: Ask the player to your left if they are ready to investigate themselves.

IDEA: If you write the rules of the game, you literally cannot lose.

THE TEN CERTIFICATES

PLAY: Slam your hand on the table and declare NOTHING WRONG!

IDEA: A certificate of innocence is best signed by the accused.

THE GOLDEN PEN

PLAY: Hand an invisible pen to a friend. Make them sign a blank contract.

IDEA: The conclusion is baked into the cake before the oven is turned on.

THE OFFICIAL SEAL OF HUMBUG

PLAY: Stamp someone's forehead with your thumb. Yell HUMBUG!

IDEA: Authority is just an expensive piece of wax.

THE SCOPE OF DENIAL

The best way to not find a needle is to only search the tractor.

The Terms-of-Reference-Tortoise

PLAY: Redefine the current argument so you are automatically right.
IDEA: Defines the scope of inquiry so precisely that inconvenient causes fall outside it.

The Deliberate-Definition-Dingo

PLAY: Draw a circle in the air. Everything outside the circle is fake news.
IDEA: The conclusion is not reached, it is assumed from line one. The frame is the verdict.

The Roberts-Commission-Rhinoceros

PLAY: Point at the person with the most snacks and declare them guilty.
IDEA: Issues the blame assignment before the investigation concludes.

The Kangaroo-Commission-Crocodile

PLAY: Close your eyes, bang the table, and announce the heat is off.
IDEA: The commission is the product. The report is just the packaging.

STACKING THE DECK

The simplest way to control the outcome is to control the room.

The Conflict-of-Interest-Camel

PLAY: Offer to judge a contest you are currently competing in.
IDEA: Seat a participant on the investigation of their own crimes.

The Vested-Interest-Vulture

PLAY: Look deeply impartial while accepting a hypothetical bribe.
IDEA: Align the investigative body perfectly with the conclusion required.

The Zelikow-Zebra

PLAY: Tell everyone how the movie ends before buying the tickets.
IDEA: Write the final report before the investigation holds its first hearing.

The Preemptive-Outline-Pelican

PLAY: Whisper a secret, then cite yourself as an anonymous expert.
IDEA: Rigor of form masks rigidity of a predetermined conclusion.

THE ART OF THE SHREDDER

You don't hide the truth.
You manage its availability.

KayfaBOGGLE!

The Tape-Destroying-Tapir

PLAY: Pretend to eat a playing card. Chow loudly.
IDEA: Destroy evidence under court order and confidently wait for nothing to happen.

The Black-Site-Badger

PLAY: Step behind a curtain or chair. Claim you no longer legally exist.
IDEA: No documentation is required where no documentation is permitted.

The Climategate-Clam

PLAY: Repeat Nothing to see here until everyone gets bored and leaves.
IDEA: Volume of investigation substitutes for quality of investigation.

The Records-Raccoon

PLAY: Put a card in your pocket. Declare it never existed.
IDEA: The sanctioned version in the archive is the only version that happened.

KayfaBOGGLE!

GW Georg v. Westphalen

The Sound of Silence

The most effective testimony is the testimony that isn't given.

The Gavel-Down-Gorilla

PLAY: Slam your hand down exactly when someone says the word but.
IDEA: Cut off live testimony the exact second it approaches reality.

The Intimidation-Ibis

PLAY: Stand very close to a player and ask them if they are sure about that.
IDEA: The authority of the instruction outweighs the authority of the evidence.

The Missing-Witness-MoLe

PLAY: Cross a friend's name off a piece of paper with dramatic flair.
IDEA: Remove the testimony before it can even be scheduled.

The Senility-Prompt-Salamander

PLAY: Helpfully finish someone else's sentence completely wrong.
IDEA: Remind a witness what they remember, before they remember it incorrectly.

HUMBUG!

The Waiting Game

The inquiry is the product.
The report is the reward.

The Review- Process- Rooster

PLAY: Tell someone you'll answer their question in three to four years.
IDEA: Convert active political pressure into a pending administrative scheduling problem.

The Heat- Relief- Heron

PLAY: Nod deeply. Look reassuring. Do absolutely nothing.
IDEA: Provide the optics of responsiveness without the substance of accountability.

The Independent- Commission-Iguana

PLAY: Write INDEPENDENT on a sticky note and stick it to your forehead.
IDEA: The word performs the function of independence without the requirement of it.

The Final-Report- Flamingo

PLAY: Hold a heavy book over your head and refuse to read it.
IDEA: The form grants the authority regardless of the content.

The Illusion of Precision

Numbers grant the appearance of precision to the absence of evidence.

The Ferguson-Ferret

PLAY: Invent a highly specific statistic (e.g., 84.3%) to win a petty argument.
IDEA: The precision of the number substitutes for the validity of the method.

The Headline-Hypothesis-Hyena

PLAY: Shout a wild headline. Whisper the retraction.
IDEA: Rely on the certainty that almost no one will trace the footnote.

The Peer-Review-Python

PLAY: Hide your opponent's cards and declare yourself the default winner.
IDEA: The record shows consensus because dissent was actively purged.

The Self-Exoneration-Salamander

PLAY: High-five yourself and announce you are innocent of all charges.
IDEA: The finding of no wrongdoing is accepted when you investigate yourself

The Distribution Network

The cover-up requires distribution. The press provides it.

The Spiked-Story-Sparrow

PLAY: Hover your hand over a card, look terrified, and pull back.
IDEA: The threat of losing access outweighs the value of the story.

The Label-Change-Lynx

PLAY: Call a lie a sub-optimal narrative alignment.
IDEA: Rename events to neutralize their political charge before they enter search engines.

The Binder-Bear

PLAY: Hug a closed binder tightly and refuse to let anyone see it.
IDEA: The gesture of openness substitutes for the act of transparency.

The Distraction-Deployment-Dingo

PLAY: Point out the window and yell Look at that! then steal a card.
IDEA: Escalate a crisis elsewhere the exact moment domestic pressure rises

The Justice Redirect

Justice is not prevented. It is redirected.

The Sweetheart-Deal-Swan

PLAY: Trade your worst card for a friend's best card, smiling innocently.
IDEA: Seal the investigation's findings as the price of the plea.

The Camp-Cupcake-Crane

PLAY: Act like you are staying at a 5-star resort while in timeout.
IDEA: A minimum-security arrangement signals that exposure has a ceiling.

The Pardon-Architecture-Panther

PLAY: Wait until a game is over, then declare you actually won.
IDEA: The legal accountability window closes seamlessly with the administration.

The Intelligence-Asset-Armadillo

PLAY: Refuse to explain yourself. Say you belong to intelligence.
IDEA: Prosecution becomes inconvenient when the asset acquires a classified dimension.

Live Demonstrations

This is not a historical example. It is a live demonstration.

The Client-List-Crocodile

PLAY: Promise a friend you will give them a million dollars tomorrow. (Don't).
IDEA: The announcement does the work without the disclosure.

The No-Client-List-Narwhal

PLAY: Deny the existence of the cup of water currently sitting in front of you.
IDEA: The denial transfers the burden of proof directly to the skeptic.

The Institutional-Momentum-Manatee

PLAY: Go completely limp. Let the game continue around you.
IDEA: Inertia is sufficient force to maintain the cover-up.

The Suicide-Certainty-Secretary-Bird

PLAY: Stare unblinking at a player and declare an opinion as absolute scientific law.
IDEA: Eyewitness certainty as a substitute for contested forensic evidence.

Happy Birthday!

The Matrix of Misdirection

Nine examples. One mechanism.

The Terms-Bake-the-Conclusion-Tiger

PLAY: Read the last page of a book out loud before anyone starts reading.

IDEA: The conclusion precedes the inquiry across every single case without exception.

The Pattern-Recognition-Platypus

PLAY: Point at three random objects and convincingly explain how they are related.

IDEA: The methodology is completely consistent; only the application varies.

The Real-Time-Cover-Up-Raven

PLAY: Start narrating the actions of the player across from you like a sports caster.

IDEA: Historical analysis is not required; present observation is sufficient.

The Kayfabe-Cover-Up-Conclusion-Cat

PLAY: Name the elephant in the room. Say it out loud.

IDEA: Naming the operation is the exact act the cover-up requires to prevent.

The Cast of Characters

The individuals are not the system. The system uses the individuals.

The Roberts-Commission-Ram

PLAY: Speak incredibly fast and declare the debate over.
IDEA: Speed and authority in absolute service of misdirection.

Allen-Dulles-Donkey

PLAY: Investigate who stole the cookies while holding a cookie.
IDEA: Professional biography as a massive, screaming conflict of interest.

Oliver-North-Narwhal

PLAY: Break a rule, smile for the camera, and ask for a book deal.
IDEA: Total lack of accountability functioning as a lucrative career opportunity.

Zelikow-Zebrafish

PLAY: Draft an apology text for something you plan to do tomorrow.
IDEA: Pre-write the structural container that all subsequent truth must fit inside.

The Century of Fog

The technique has not changed in one hundred years.
The cases are interchangeable.

The Self-Investigation-Squid

PLAY: Shake your own hand and congratulate yourself on a job well done.
IDEA: The finding of innocence and the finder of innocence are exactly the same entity.

The Century-of-Cover-Ups-Condor

PLAY: Tell a story that loops perfectly back to the beginning.
IDEA: The technique does not evolve because it simply does not need to.

The Epstein-Intelligence-Elephant

PLAY: Walk into a room, refuse to elaborate, let everyone make up their own excuse.

IDEA: The legal system stops entirely at the intelligence community's boundary.

The Continuity-Mechanism-Crocodile

PLAY: Sit perfectly still and win the game by outlasting everyone else.

IDEA: Persist not through active maintenance, but through the immense gravity of institutions.

THE COUNTER-ARCHIVE

THE COVER-UP CAN BE EXPOSED IN REAL TIME. THAT THE ONLY WINDOW.

THE TRANSCRIPT-TERRIER

PLAY: Take notes during the game. Use them against people later.
IDEA: The cover-up's most vulnerable moment is before it solidifies into the official record.

THE REAL-TIME-WATCHER-WEASEL

PLAY: Call out a pattern the exact second it starts repeating.
IDEA: Historical analysis confirms; present observation acts.

THE COMMENT-SECTION-CAPYBARA

PLAY: Ask everyone for their opinion, then just chill.
IDEA: Crowd-sourced pattern recognition acts as the ultimate investigative method.

THE SAYER-G-SALAMANDER

PLAY: Pick one tiny detail and refuse to let it go until the game ends.

IDEA: Individual investigative persistence produces actual, terrifying results.

The Last Word

Not hidden. Documented. Stay fluffy.

The Standard Procedure

PLAY: Read aloud: We investigated ourselves and found nothing wrong.
IDEA: It is not a secret operation. It is standard operating procedure.

The Tenth Signature

PLAY: Sign your name with an absurd flourish.
IDEA: The name has been used nine times. It will be used again before the month is old.

The Footnote

PLAY: Always read the fine print. Especially now.
IDEA: None of it required a conspiracy theory. All of it required reading to the footnote.

Stay Fluffy (The Sign-Off)

PLAY: Wish everyone a Happy Lou Day and pack up the game.
IDEA: Anarchy requires warmth. Sabotage requires joy.

KayfaBONGO!

Happy Lou Day!
